CONNECT AND EXPAND

Attracted by FRANCE and its technology? Seize this business development opportunity!

Abridge helps you to break free from the language barrier and assists you in all the administrative, legal and logistic procedures.

Translation

Do you need to have your documents, websites, catalogues, commercial brochures, technical and user's manuals translated from English to French, French to English or Spanish to English or French? Are you looking for an interpreter to be on call, or at your elbow throughout negotiations and meetings?

Abridge places at your disposal its highly trained representatives, using the latest CAT software, whilst providing a 'human' translation for a perfect overall result. In addition, they can accompany you for a "live" translation.

« The quality of an Abridge performance will always enhance the image of your company. »

Assistance

Are you looking for an intermediary to face the administrative, legal and logistic maze of the French market? Do you want to carry out a market research study or an environmental survey for your products, or a detailed competitor analysis? Do you need a business-minded linguist to liaise with your suppliers?

Abridge brings forward its expertise and know-how in the world of international business and procedures, with a standard of quality that can only be gained with years of experience. Most importantly – Abridge will provide you with an easy route into the complex culture of the French economy.

About Us

Abridge is a company set up in the region of Toulon, in the sunny South of France. Inspired by a highly motivated Team of French-born business persons, the firm will always do whatever it takes to facilitate business exchanges with France.

It promotes the image of France in the world by the quality of its work and its performance.

FRANCE in the world

- France is the world's 5th largest economy.
- 25% of its GDP is secured by exports
- Paris is the 3rd city in the world by the number of head-offices of the 500 biggest global organisations. Paris ranks after Tokyo and Beijing, but ahead of New York and London.
- France runs in the lead in the aircraft industry (Airbus), the transports (TGV), the space industry (Ariane), the telecoms (Smartcard) and high technology products.
- Transport machinery and equipment, aircraft equipment, plastics, chemicals and pharmaceuticals make most of the French exports.
- N°1 world exporter of perfumes and cosmetics, France is also internationally famous for its fashion industry, haute couture and luxury products.
- France is the top agricultural producer in the EU and ranks 2nd worldwide in agri-food.
- The French intellectual & education system is amongst the best in the world. It ranks 4th globally in number of patents granted.
- Finally, France is the top tourist destination in the world. The country is famous for the scenic splendour of the countryside, the quality of its cuisine, and the warm welcome it extends to all visitors.
